As late as 1492 A.D., it was commonly believed that the earth was flat. Christopher Columbus believed that the earth was round and was ridiculed for it. Why did he believe this? He read an ancient writing that declared that the earth is round, a sphere; so he set off on a sea voyage that proved this to be true.

The same writing indicated that the number of the stars in the sky was so great that they could not be counted, like the grains of sand in the sea. To believe this was absurd to people who then could only see 1200 stars with the naked eye. If they had only known what we know today (thanks to the invention of the Hubble telescope), that there are an estimated TRILLIONS of stars, they would not have scoffed at those who believed this back then.

Today there is much interest in what can't be seen with our natural eyes; the reality of the invisible spiritual realm, angels, God.... The same ancient writing (the Bible) tell us all about it.

It's our "telescope" into the spiritual realm.

*In the spiritual realm there is a law that states:
"the soul who sins shall die (eternally)".*

(Sin is rejecting/ignoring God and His ways.)

But just as the "Law of Lift" overrides the "Law of Gravity" allowing an aircraft to fly; in the spiritual realm, the "Law of the Spirit of Life in Christ Jesus" overrides the "Law of Sin and Death" and frees a person from the temporal and eternal consequences of their sin. God, in His mercy and love for us accomplished this at a cost to Himself by sending His only begotten Son (Jesus Christ) to go in our place to suffer the punishment due us for our sins. He lived a sinless life and then took the blame and punishment for our sins upon Himself being brutally tortured, nailed to a cross, and buried,

But

The good news is that He rose from the dead on the third day, defeating the power of sin and death on our behalf. He then appeared to over 500 people and then returned to Heaven. NOW, when anyone invites Jesus Christ into their life to be Lord and Savior, the "Law of the Spirit of Life in Christ Jesus" takes effect in their lives overriding the "Law of Sin and Death". They enter into a relationship with God and receive the promise of eternal life.
